MEMBERSHIP ›

Individual membership of the Institute of People Management is open to all persons actively involved in the industry and practice of Human Resources as practitioners, but also to individuals who want to keep abreast of people management trends and who may want to enhance their knowledge on how to impact positively on human capital for growth.

The Institute of People Management is a member of the World Federation of Personnel Management Associations and the African Federation of Human Resource Management Associations. Additionally, the IPM is the largest professional Human Resources body in Africa. Upon becoming a member you will be joining thousands of members who are serviced by a national office in Johannesburg with branch organisations in various major centres in South Africa:
